Joint Pledge Payable at Death

It is our desire to become a contributor to the _____ by making a gift payable upon the last of us to die. This commitment is a binding pledge of support to _____ in the amount of $_____. Accordingly, to the extent that this gift has not been completed during our lifetime and is not otherwise satisfied upon the last of us to die (such as by the payment of insurance or a bequest under my will) then, in consideration of the gifts and pledges of others and to induce you to act in reliance on this pledge for your planning, budgeting, and expenditures, we hereby agree that the unpaid balance of my pledge shall be considered a just debt due and owing from my estate.
